"Probation after Death" will be the Sunday Lesson-Sermon subject in all branches of The First Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston. The Golden Text from James reads, "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him." A selection from Mark's Gospel relates that "when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils." John adds that "the same day at evening, . . . when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. . . . After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias." In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave. Jesus was 'the way'; that is, he marked the way for all men."

Salvation Army Fall Salvage Drive Announced

Right now would be a good time for Torrance and Lomita housewives to begin fall house-cleaning, an announcement from the Salvation Army salvage headquarters indicated this week.

Only three weeks remain until "Salvage Week," when the assistance organization will make a special drive under the motto "Your Throwaways Make Work that Pays." The campaign will reach its peak Nov. 17 to 23.

"No cash is being solicited," Russell Smirl, campaign committee newspaper chairman announced. "The Army requests only those materials which the public ordinarily discards during fall cleaning and which are used to provide approximately 27,000 days of employment through a year 'round program in the workshops of the Army Men's Social Service center at 1370 Alamitos ave., Long Beach."

TALK TOMORROW TO BE BROADCAST

Residents of Torrance and Lomita may hear a lecture on the subject "Christian Science: A Religion of Answered Prayer," which will be broadcast over station KFWB (980 kc), Friday, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m., from Ninth Church of Christ, Scientist, Los Angeles.

The lecturer, Arthur C. Whitney, of Chicago, is a member of the Christian Science Board of Lecturership.

Lomita Church Celebrates 37th Birthday Sunday

The Community Presbyterian Church, in Lomita, will celebrate its 37th anniversary of its founding, next Sunday, Oct. 27. The special speaker at the 11 a. m. service will be the Rev. Archie Crouch, a missionary from China. The Rev. John E. Orr, pastor, will deliver the evening sermon at services beginning at 7:30.

The first church building in Lomita area was dedicated for months later. The community of Lomita was then made up of about 30 pioneer families. The church became a member of Los Angeles Presbytery in 1918. Since then the church has had six pastors: Dr. Charles M. Fisher, Rev. E. E. Clark, Rev. Louis Tinning, Rev. Harold Ingersoll, Rev. L. C. Montgomery and the present pastor, Rev. John E. Orr, who has been minister since 1936.

TORRANCE HERALD October 24

DRUNK DRIVER
On his plea of guilty to drunk driving, Edward Presgrave, Los Angeles, Friday was fined $125 in City Court by Judge John Shidler. The local justice ordered Presgrave's driver's license revoked for the ensuing 30 days, court records reveal.

Now to make it unanimous, we need only a five-day bike race with the boys demanding six days' pay.
